Case No CVDR1601483
ORDER TO ATTEND WEDNESDAY
FOCUS ON CHILDREN CLASSES

To provide parents information about helping children cope with parenting in separate homes, and pursuant to Rule 602(D) of the Idaho Rules of Family Law Procedure,

BOTH PARTIES ARE ORDERED to attend FOCUS ON CHILDREN CLASS held at the ADA COUNTY COURTHOUSE, 200 W. Front Street, Boise -- fourth floor, on WEDNESDAY, February 24th, 2016, beginning promptly at 5:30 p.m. and ending at 8:00 p.m. Please arrive by 5:15 p.m. to complete registration. YOUR CHILDREN AGE 8 through 16 SHOULD ATTEND THE CLASS, as there will be a program designed for these children. PLEASE DO NOT BRING CHILDREN UNDER THE AGE OF EIGHT. If you have a current no contact order or civil protection order pertaining to you or your child please contact Family Court Services at 287-7600. Snacks will be provided for the children who attend this class. PLEASE CONTACT FAMILY COURT SERVICES PRIOR TO THE CLASS IF YOUR CHILD HAS ANY FOOD ALLERGIES OR SENSITIVITIES. All persons will be required to pass through a security metal detector to gain entrance to the courthouse. If your child has previously attended this class the child need not attend a second time. If any of the parties require the assistance of an interpreter, please contact the Interpreter's Office at (208) 287-7686, as soon as possible.

EACH PARENT SHALL PAY the fee of $50.00 at the door. Cash, checks and money orders are accepted. Credit cards are not accepted. Parties (Idaho residents and non-resident appearing parties) living more than 150 miles from Boise must comply with this Order by attending the class OR providing this Court proof of their attendance at a similar court-related class OR comply by mail by purchasing a DVD of the class and the packet. If you choose to comply by mail you must watch the DVD, read the course material and complete a quiz. You must then return the quiz with the accompanying notarized affidavit to Family Court Services. You must receive an 80% or higher grade on the quiz for compliance to be recognized. If you decide to comply by mail you will need to mail $50.00 to Family Court Services, Ada County Courthouse, 200 W. Front St. Ste. 4106 Boise, ID 83702. You may also want to call our office and reschedule the class date you have been assigned for some additional time to complete this process.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel for the parties shall notify their clients of this Order, along with the date, time, cost, location, and advise their clients to bring their children ages 8 through 16. Failure to comply with this order may result in the imposition of sanctions for contempt of court and may be construed as willful failure to diligently prosecute this action.

Case No CVDR1601483
JOINT TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER
(CHILDREN)

NOTICE! READ THIS DOCUMENT CAREFULLY. THERE MAY BE SEVERE PENALTIES FOR ANY VIOLATION OF THIS COURT ORDER.

This matter has come before the court on a Complaint, Petition or Motion for divorce or a related proceeding involving the custody of children. The judges of the domestic relations court of Ada County are of the opinion that all parties to such proceedings ought to be subject to a joint restraining order from the date of institution of the proceeding or service of process in order to maintain the status quo in their relationships with their children. Therefore, pursuant to Rule 511, Idaho Rules of Family Law Procedure, the Plaintiff and Defendant are prohibited from doing the following acts during the pendency of this action without specific written consent of the parties or prior Order of the court:

1. Removing any minor child of the parties who reside in Idaho from the State of Idaho (except for periods of time not exceeding 72 hours).
2. Molesting, harassing, disturbing the peace of, threatening violence against, or committing an assault or battery on the person of the other party or any minor child of the parties or either of them.
3. Making any negative, derogatory or disparaging remarks against or about the other party or demeaning the other party to the minor children of the parties or within their presence or hearing.

4. Removing any minor child of the parties who is of school age from the school district in which the child has resided, or changing the school, preschool, or day care provider of any minor child of the parties.
5. Changing the primary medical care provider or any life, health, liability, or medical insurance coverage of, or for the benefit of, any minor child of the parties.
6. Taking any action to restrict the access of the other party to medical, school, birth, financial, or insurance records of or relating to any minor child of the parties.
7. Limiting or interfering with contact between the other party and any minor children of the parties, including telephone, written and in-person communication, except pursuant to a domestic violence protection order.
8. Disclosing to or discussing with any person, other than the party's attorney, and part of any assessment, evaluation, or report prepared by Family Court Services or by any person appointed by the court to perform such assessment or evaluation. This includes, without limitation, parenting evaluations, ADR assessments, drug screens, substance abuse evaluations, anger or violence evaluations, CARES reports, and reports of child protection investigations.

Unless good cause is shown, upon an application and hearing, this Joint Temporary Restraining Order shall become a temporary injunction and shall remain in effect as a temporary injunction until a final order is entered on the Complaint, Petition or Motion, or until further order of the court. No bond shall be required of either party. This order shall be binding on each party, on their servants, employees, attorneys, and on those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this order by personal service or otherwise.

VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER MAY RESULT IN PENALTIES INCLUDING A FINE OF UP TO $5000, UP TO FIVE DAYS IN JAIL, AN AWARD OF COSTS AND ATTORNEY FEES AGAINST YOU, AND SUCH OTHER SANCTIONS AS THE COURT MAY DEEM APPROPRIATE.

3. Molesting, harassing, disturbing the peace of, threatening violence against, or committing an assault or battery on the other party or any minor child of the parties or either of them.
4. Taking possession of, or attempting to take possession of any real or personal property in the possession of the other party.
5. Terminating or otherwise affecting the service of water, electricity, gas, telephone, television and other utilities or services at the customary residence of the other party.
6. Incurring any debt or making any credit or charge purchases except in the usual course of business, for the necessities of life, or for reasonable attorneys' fees.
7. Excluding the other party from, or preventing access to, the usual residence of the other party, places where community property or property of the other party is stored, or business and tax records of the parties. If the parties maintain separate residences, neither shall attempt to enter or gain access to the usual residence of the other without permission.
8. Taking any action in connection with a business in which the parties own an interest that may diminish the value of the community interest or separate property interest of the other party, or that may limit access of the other party to, or adversely affect the other party's right of control of, the property, accounts, and records of the business.

Unless good cause is shown, upon an application and hearing, this Joint Temporary Restraining Order shall become a temporary injunction and shall remain in effect as a temporary injunction until a final order is entered on the Complaint, Petition or Motion, or until further order of the court.
